

ICCR SENT CULTURAL TROUPES FOR THE 75th REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATIONS ABROAD

To celebrate the 75th Republic Day of Bharat (India) across the globe with grandeur, ICCR sent its finest performing artistes and groups abroad so that the global audience gets to see and understand the diversity of India's vibrant performing art forms.

From 15 – 29 January 2024, ICCR has sent several cultural troupes, led by prominent artists empanelled with ICCR to foreign countries including Sri Lanka, Vietnam, Poland, South Africa, New Zealand and Russia. The performances featured various Indian dance forms in several segments consisting of classical, Indian cinema, folk, and contemporary styles along with Hindustani vocal and devotional music.

Apart from the cultural performances, some cultural troupes also conducted workshops on the know-how of Indian classical dance forms for the foreign nationals. For example, Dr. Rekha Mehra, a leading exponent of Kathak dance during her visit to Russia, conducted a workshop of Kathak and Chhau dance for Russian enthusiasts.
